

Celebrating the Terriers of the 70s

When: Saturday, March 22, 2008
Where: Hillsborough High School
Time: 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM

You can be a winner!

In your outfit of the 70s, be it Hippie, Flower Girl, or Cool – you can join the Parade of the 70s. Everyone in costume will meet in the courtyard at 1:00 PM, parade down to the patio section to the drumbeat of the Terrier Drum Corp. Here judges will decide the winners of the best of 70s look.

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS...

You'll look cool picking up your 70s kit which contains your FREE peace medal, lunch ticket, name tag, etc. Showing your family around and looking for familiar classmates you will hear music of the 70s playing in the courtyard and the patio. A professional photographer is waiting to take photos of your group and preserve this moment in time. Hey, lunch is served between 11:30 and 2:00 PM, and like old times, you have to stand in the lunch line to get your lunch bag containing a sandwich, chips, dessert, and drink of your choice. Take your pick, seating is everywhere – in the cafeteria, courtyard, or patio. It's 1:00, time to join the Parade of the 70s ...parade on down to the patio to the drumbeat of the Big Red drummers - you're a winner by just being there! At 2:00 PM get in the auditorium because here comes the Big Red Marching Band to present a concert that will take you back in time.
